You spoilt the brew, with your new album. You wrote it yourself, with a few understudies.

It sucked, very few ratings.....

Better leave it to the experts. When you are in your 70's, you will have a lot of music come.

A brand new start. It will lead to something else. Broadway.....

You're writing for the Navy as well, some Cher songs.....

The Beach is where you will get your inspiration...

Go to the Beach, I know you like the valleys, but in the summer, in the holidays, go to the Beach....

A new label coming. You will write songs for other people too. A long time coming. It's been a real long wait. But you will be writing songs soon....

Bar Be Cue's by the bay, bring your laptop....

Do some meditation, then it will all come to you.

Steam Engine has you interested. You will write another book?

She sounds silly, but has you interested. She wrote on your blog, didn't she? , got you pissed off.

Well, now you know, Would've chased you to the hills, if things went to plan. Would have had a great time. Lead singer in your band, and sing the night away.....

Never mind it weren't meant to be. The Government stuck it up everybody with their smokes; something had to be done. So she went that way. Will be rewarded in Heaven....

Your laxatives are very strong, some herbs you are taking, make you shit, and you can't work it out?

Been to all the Doctors and can't figure it out, either? You are allergic to fruit and Vegetables, it's the insecticides they use. Go to another fruit shop. Where they get it from, its cheap Asia or something. Go elsewhere.

You're going on a holiday soon to Japan or Singapore, to meet relatives? They approve of you and loyal as pigs in mud. You've paved their way to happiness and they are forever grateful. Of course you will be paid back, in lotto winnings in time to come, and a Mercedes. It all comes back to you. You will never be poor, next lifetime; you have helped so many people....

The fridge is disappointing, you are always eating out. Children grown up and you're never home, always writing music, out fishing and hunting trips, or holidaying...

A Maid has tried to crack on to you for a long time. You are disappointed thought she was a nice lady. She wrote a book, because you were not interested. Write another in time to come. She will be whipped when past over....No need for that type of onslaught..

She said you had illegal drugs and prostitution. It all went to air, It was all lies She is a Bitch.

She will never have respect in Kingdom come....

Just because you did not swing her way.....

January 28th, 2017

You never had any respect in the industry, did you? Because of your income.

70's will look a slightly different. The pennies will drop, who is boss!

Tires flat on your car, somebody has been puncher ing them. The neighbour next door. Leaving your bins outside, he got revenge. Cost you a fortune in tires.....

He will get a legal summons down the track and you will sue him for every penny, including his home. Not a nice man. Old, and Crazy, old crooner. Backstabbing Bastard. Your get your revenge.

The employment industry wants you back, old and tired but your back.....

Your wife will full pregnant late in life, I don't think you will have the child, it will not be a healthy normal child, and there is no income. Better off going the other way...

Taxation will hit you hard, and you cannot pay it, will do some community service....

The tabloids are all writing about it.....affected your sex life too, depression. Felt like you made a fool of yourself mate? No you did not, a heartfelt story

You're boy hood days on drugs and booze, have nothing to do with your child hood, you just like getting drunk and having a party.....

You will have memory loss, in old age, and may pass out a few times, due to the drugs you took I, Alisa, will give you Music in your 70's, if you give up the game.....Do it for your family as they will perish without the income and will hit the streets and be thuds....

When you quit the drugs and booze, I suggest to keep you on the straight and narrow, that you keep going to health retreats, Yoga and massages, and detoxes

You will never gain a music career again as you blew it all.....?

You're Mother went from being a waitress, to a Doctor. She will help you when you pass over, and pay you back for your childhood..

You will have serious health issues when you pass over. You will need your Mums help.....

Quit the drugs for your family, they will perish without the income.....?
