Say good bye to him if you don't

Your lazy and just so, he won't let you hire a maid

The Steam room is hot, but is this what you really want?

Say good bye to him and get your laundry done

There will be a big row , around February, then he will be done, its over the dishes as usual

Your naughty but nice garments need changing, you really like Women. Go for it love there are lots to choose from. You like Women. Go for it, Better for change. I don't think you will look back either, and you have always wanted a family. Your Bi, but prefer Women....They are better looking and have more charisma. And dress nicer. You know it deep down....

You will meet a blonde haired women with blue eyes and marry.. She loves animals especially small white dogs, and loves you....I hear she is 38 yrs old or you?

Changing nappies an't your thing but you will have heaps of maids...

You will do a movie, and kid of some sort show, back street. It will sell, not a major one. But it gets the votes.

Lots of Duo's, Kylie Monique ect. Dannie Monique. And Cher

You might be a Neighbours star, everybody will be watching that one. Won't happen overnight, you might be an old man, with walking stick, walking down the aisle with a young woman. Lots of talk in that show about that one. She's a prostitute and marrying you for your money.....

The Dentist chair is poor, look around for another dentist. He rips people off and has your teeth in mind. You will lose all of them. Be aware....He's got red and blue everywhere in his office and outside....

Darryl Summers will come to you, he's the best in the business, will write music for you. Be on your best behaviour. New contract coming your way that is long term....

Take a cool shower after a drink, your temper gets out of control....You should not drink, or may be change what you drink. I hear beer. Don't drink it.

Been a long time between meals and you have a drink this is where it gets out of control. Have a meal then you will not be so horrible to be with....

You may lose your Women at these times, but I don't think you will? But these are the times when you are not eating. You will soon get the drift, and look after yourself better, or maybe you will read my blog?
